One of the most difficult decisions in any type of genealogy publishing is deciding when to stop researching the various family lines and when to publish your findings for others to be able to make use of. Having previously done several other books I can honestly advise that every possible family line has never been researched by every available avenue. This gets proven more readily with each passing year. New genealogy information becomes available with each passing day. It is now believed that Man's knowledge and available information doubles every eighteen months.

This book is published knowing that it is incomplete. I acknowledge that I have yet to research many of the various family branches in this book. A few years ago I wrote Ancestors and Relatives of Reverdy Lewin Orrell, IV, which detailed my son's complete ancestry. Some of his direct line ancestors were traced back thirteen generations. This current series of books doesn't go back in time; rather, they come forward. Each book begins with one of our son's 'end of the line' direct line ancestor and brings that ancestor's line to the present day. Therefore the reader will find our son, Reverdy Lewin Orrell, IV as a descendant in every book in this series. Obviously, his direct line from the progenitor in each book is very well documented. Some of the other descendancy lines from the progenitor have not been researched at all.

Why then, might you ask, is this series of books even being produced, if they are not completely researched and documented? The answer is quite simple - all of the family trees and branches, all of the genealogy data, all of the various source notes - do absolutely no good to anyone else when they are stored in my computer databases, census databases, and file cabinets. While it is my intention to eventually work on many of these lines again; I can't be sure that each project will ever be completed. Therefore, while I am young enough, in good health, and have the necessary funds, I am doing this series of fourteen books. There are several other family lines that are absolutely huge; some have been very well documented by other researchers. There are a few other lines that I will be publishing at a later date.

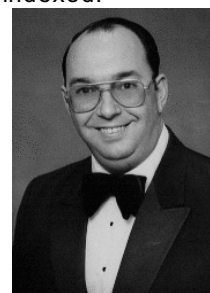

I do not consider myself an expert on any of these lines. Many persons helped me out by researching several of these lines before me. In all cases I have added to their research. Please note that the notes are not rewritten and polished. The books in this series are intended to aid and assist other genealogists who are interested in these various family lines.

Each book in this series is published on a very limited basis. A copy of each has been placed in the Library of Congress in Washington, D.C., Daughters of the American Revolution Library in Washington, D.C., Latter Day Saints (LDS) Family Library in Utah, the Maryland State Archives in Annapolis, Maryland, and the Maryland Historical Society in Baltimore, Maryland.

An index of each book appears in the back. Please bear in mind that only descendants, their spouses and their spouse's parents are indexed. Persons mentioned in the various notes are not indexed.

From Patti Parker: "Barbara Rytina's nephew sent me a copy of a newspaper article from last year. It marks the 100th birthday of Fairmount Savings & Loan Association, Inc. in Rosedale. It says in part: It was organized early in 1879 in a room over Anton Rytina's saloon at 1919 East Fairmount Avenue, at the corner of Fairmount and Chapel St. The original membership was 27 and the shareholders depositors elected Mr. Rytina their first president. The association which was incorporated October 20, 1879, adopted its present name in 1960. Originally it had been the 'Fairmount and Chapel Streets Permanent Building Association No. 1 of Baltimore City.'"

NOTES for Vincent follow:

Vincent Martinek is not listed with his parents on their arrival in the Port of Baltimore on 16 Oct 1876. At this time he would have been about 19 years old. He is again not shown on his mother's return to the U.S. on 5 June 1880. His death certificate showed he was in Baltimore for 10 years at the time of his death. If this information was correct he would have arrived in Baltimore about 1873 a full 3 years before his parent's arrival. It should be noted that his sister Mary (Marie) was also not on the first arrival list although she was on the return arrival of her mother. The 1900 MD Census shows that she arrived in the U.S. in 1873 the same year that Vincent arrived. She would have been about 9 years old by her death certificate birthdate or 11 years old by her age as specified on the arrival list in 1880.

It is interesting to note that there is a VINCENZ MARTINEK located in a Port of Baltimore Passenger Arrival list of 30 June 1876 which is 3 1/2 months before the arrival of Jacob Martinek and family. This sailing was also from Bremen, Germany on the vessel NUERNBERG. Vincenz was listed as 19 years old from Bohemia and a laborer. This could certainly be Vincent Martinek with the birth year being 1857.

Vincent Martinek is listed in the 1880 MD Census as VINS. MARTINETT with his wife, Barbara (Rytina), mother - Mary, and various brothers and sisters - Josephine, Annie, Frank, Mary, Annie, and Joseph. However his son John (Kelly) who was listed as being born in 1879 was not listed in the 1880 Census. Vincent is shown as a Coat Maker in the 1880 Census and living at 41 N. Chapel Street.

Living at 45 N. Chapel at the time of his death. Died of typho-malaria fever after 6 weeks illness. Was a Tailor and living in Baltimore for 10 years at the time of his death. Age of death certificate was 25 years.

Marriage license to Barbara Rytina found in issue book 1873-1800 p. 292 at Hall of Records, Annapolis, MD. He was listed as VINCENE MARTINEK.

After his death his wife, Barbara married his blood brother, Francis Martinek.

Located in the Baltimore City Directory: 1877 Vincent, tailor, 43 N. Chapel 1878 Vincent, tailor, 43 N. Chapel 1879 Vincent, tailor, 43 N. Chapel 1880 Vincent, tailor, 43 N. Chapel 1881 Vincent, tailor, 70 E. Biddle ext 1882 Vincent, tailor, 45 N. Chapel

Barbara next married (2) Francis MARTINEK in Baltimore City, MD. He was born 1867, in Bohemia, Austria, the son of Jacob MARTINEK and Mary Amalie VINAR.
